Vandals Win From Oregon

(By the Associated Press)

Washington 6 10 375 700 789

It's not going to be any cinch, but the Idaho university basketball Vandals can assure themselves of at least a first-place tie in the northern division with a repeat win to-night over the Oregon university five, who fell last night 50-46 on the Moscow court.

In the underdog corner and fighting for nothing in particular regarding the conference standings, the Oregon crew put up a battle which kept the Vandals hopping to maintain their slim lead over Oregon State.

However, the tempo of the game was nothing for the Staters to crow about because their one remaining conference contest will be with the same strong Oregon team Saturday night. Idaho will also wind up its slate by entertaining the Washington State Cougars Saturday.

A see-saw first half last night gave Idaho a slim 29-25 half-time lead and Oregon tied up the session at 35-35 after five minutes of the second half. With the pinch on, Center Jack Phoenix of the Vandals poured in five points. Oregon again forged ahead but with six minutes to go the score was 38-46 in favor of the Vandals.

Idaho froze the ball for the remainder except when Phoenix slipped away for a tip-in. Phoenix scored 14 points, high for the Vandals. Oregon Forward Williams rolled up 15 while Guard Hamilton had 14.

Heroic Dog Dies to Save Young Master

Casey was just a mongrel dog, but he was a loving—and beloved—pal of young Claude Mollander of Kane, Pa. Recently they were romping in the back yard when a mountain lion, escaped from a local zoo, appeared. It crouched to attack. But Casey moved first and faster. Unhesitatingly he slashed in. The fight was terrific, but brief, and hopeless for the dog. But Casey never let up until he was killed, and his sacrifice gave the boy time to flee into the house and summon help. State police later found and killed the lion, whose body is shown at right, above. Claude, weeping over the body of his heroic pet, is pictured at left.

Boxing Card Scheduled Here

Wallace and St. Maries boxers will tangle in a fight card here tomorrow night, with the Lumberjack glove slingers hoping to balance the ledger after the 2-3 defeat they suffered last week in the St. Joe river city.

Three of tomorrow night's fights will be rematches of bouts in St. Maries—Beck vs. Baltz, Faber vs. Allen and Thornton vs. Berry. Beck decided Baltz, Thornton won a T.K.O. over Berry and Allen got the decision from Faber in previous matches.

In other bouts Blite will meet Rainbow, who lost last week to Norman Walker, and Norman Walker will meet Carman, who decided Blite last week. Leonard Walker and Rivera will also be matched for a total of seven inter-school bouts.

Two preliminaries, starting at 8 p. m., will make a total of 27 rounds of boxing.

Pete Higgins will referee. After tomorrow night the Miner boxers will have one more home card before the tournament, which probably will be held here. They will meet Kellogg here March 5.

Tourney to See High Scoring

Fans should see some high scoring games when the eight teams of the Panhandle Class A basketball conference meet in their 12-game tournament in Kellogg this week-end.

Scoring in the Panhandle conference has been progressively higher in each of the past six years, and this season set a new high mark. The eight teams in 56 games, scored 3555 points in conference play; in 1944, 3077 points; in 1943, 3023 points; and in 1941, 2766 points.

The Coeur d'Alene Vikings, undisputed champions this year, set a team scoring mark that may stand for some time. In 14 games the Vikings scored 599 points, an average of 42.8 points a game. The Vikings, high scoring team in 1945, racked up only 496 points.

Priest River scored 501 points this year, and in six years of conference competition these are the only two teams ever to score more than 500 points during the conference season.

Although the conference race has not been as close this season as in some years past, the pairings, determined on the final conference standings, assure fans of close games.

Coeur d'Alene and Priest River are seeded 1 and 2, respectively, in opposite brackets. The Spartans have been the only conference team to defeat the Vikings this year. They turned the trick at home, downing the champions 33-28. Coeur d'Alene won a game at home, 40-27.

However, the Spartans must get past St. Maries in the opening round and the Lumberjacks have defeated Priest River. They downed the Spartans 29-27 at St. Maries.

Wallace and Mullan, meet in the other opening game of the upper bracket Thursday afternoon. The Miners have won both games this season.

In the first game in the lower bracket Thursday evening Coeur d'Alene will meet Bonners Ferry. The Vikings defeated Bonners twice this season, 46-16 and 42-33. Kellogg meets Sandpoint in the other evening game. These two teams split even in conference games, Sandpoint winning at home, 35-30, and Kellogg winning on its own court, 30-21.

Quinn And Phoenix On All-Star Team

SEATTLE, Feb. 26 (AP)—Oregon State probably won't like this, but there are no Beavers on the AP's choice of an all-star northern division Pacific Coast conference basketball team this year.

With one exception, the selections are made strictly from showing of the clubs on the University of Washington floor. Maybe you'll agree—maybe you won't—but they looked good here, and their records seem to indicate they did pretty well elsewhere around the wheel.

Here it is:
Forwards—Gale Bishop, Washington State, and Jack Pomfret, Washington; Center—Jack Phoenix, Idaho; guards—Fred Quinn, Idaho, and Stan Williamson, Oregon.

Bishop, of course, is the gent who didn't show here, but you can't laugh off his 10-game average of 18.5 points per game.

Bishop May Leave Cougar Cage Team

PULLMAN, Wash., Feb. 26 (AP)—Basketball Coach Jack Friel indicated today there was a "strong possibility" that high-scoring Gale Bishop of the Washington State college Cougars might not play against the University of Idaho Saturday at Moscow, thus increasing Idaho's chances of winning its first northern division Pacific Coast conference crown in 23 years.

"There is a strong possibility that Bishop will not continue in school and as a result would not play in the Idaho game," Friel said.

LOUIS TO LOAF
LOS ANGELES, Feb. 26 (AP)—Big Joe Louis, heavyweight boxing champion, is going to loaf around Southern California until March 3 when he will leave for West Baden, Ind., to begin serious training for his title bout with William Conn, his foremost challenger, in June.
